

---

Michael P. Galgano

Comptroller Naval Facilities Engineering Command

Michael P. Galgano is the Comptroller for the Naval Facilities Engineering Command (NAVFAC) as well as the NAVFAC Community Manager for approximately 500 Financial personnel located at NAVFAC Headquarters in Washington D.C., fourteen subordinate Echelon III and IV Commands, and over eighty other support sites throughout the world. NAVFAC employs some 17,000 military and civilian personnel to provide technical expertise and authority, supporting the Navy, Marine Corps, and other Defense Services and Agencies in the areas of: military construction; planning and design; contingency engineering; environmental planning, remediation, and compliance; real estate acquisition, management, and disposal; public works, and, expeditionary logistics. Mr. Galgano was confirmed for selection to the Senior Executive Service (SES) on 5 September of 2004.

He has served in several management and supervisory positions within financial management, military construction, and field offices. Upon completion of NAVFAC's Executive Management Development Program, Mr. Galgano was appointed the Budget Officer for NAVFAC. In this leadership role, he provided guidance and continuity in all areas of financial management, including programming, budgeting, accounting, and fiscal policy. He completed the Federal Executive Institute Program "Leadership in a Democratic Society" in September of 1990.

In 1997, he became the Director of Financial Management and Deputy Comptroller of NAVFAC. In this capacity he was the Command's expert technical authority for all operating, industrial, and investment accounts/civilian personnel budget execution and budget formulation. He played a key role in corporate-wide programming, budgeting, resource allocation, and fiduciary reporting.

Mr. Galgano is a native of Washington D.C. who attended Georgetown University where he received a bachelor's of science degree in mathematics in 1968. During his 37 year

Navy career he has been awarded the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Award (1997) and the Department of the Navy Superior Civilian Service Award (2001).